

Belleville Library eNews

Children's & Teen Edition

August 2014

vol.1 issue 2

LakeFest

Sunday, August 31st

Mark your calendars for Belleville's third annual LakeFest at Community Park. This free, family-oriented event offers fun for all ages. Enjoy music, nature programs, canoeing, and much more.

The Belleville Public Library will be sponsoring:

Storytime: Stories by the Lake

@ 12:15pm picnic-style for the little ones;

David Stokes @ 1pm The award-winning naturalist – humorist – educator will entertain the entire family with music, stories and live animals!

And be sure to stop by the library booth for free

Face Painting & Trivia

offered by The Friends of the Belleville Public Library.

Early Release Days

Wondering what to do with your kids on early release days? Send them to the library! We'll either be showing a movie, doing crafts, or some other fun program. No registration is necessary - movies and crafts will be appropriate for all school-aged children.

StoryTimes Resume in September!

Fridays @10am

Visit our website for exact dates

If you've never tried Tumble Books, an online resource FREE for library patrons, you and your children are in for a real treat. Books come to life right on your computer screen. The text is highlighted as the words are read providing a wonderful tool for beginning readers. Choose from story books, chapter books, non-fiction books, videos, puzzles and more! Just click on the link from the library website.

Tutor.com Student Center

With school starting back up soon, we wanted to make sure everyone knows about our FREE online resource for kids, tutor.com. Kids and parents can receive FREE help from live experts on Math, Science, English, Test Prep, and Social Studies. You can also access it on any mobile device. Just click on the link from our website.

2014 Summer Library Program:
361 preschoolers, school-age kids,
and teens read for 2600 hours over 7 weeks. Visit our website for more details and a list of the Grand prize Winners!

Be sure to visit our website at www.bellevillelibrary-wi.org for more information! If at any time you no longer wish to receive our eNews emails, just reply to the email, and we'll remove you from our list.