THE CURSED BASEMENT

Once upon a time, there was a girl named Mia. She has blonde hair and blue eyes. She also loves mysteries. One night she got really curious and wanted to know what was in THE BASEMENT!!!! So she snuck out of her bedroom. She tiptoed down the hallway to the door that led to the basement. She opened the door "Creeeeeeeeck". She went onto the first step and made her way down to the basement. She was almost there when, "SWOOOSH", she heard something. Then "SWOOOSH" she heard it again. She was just getting ready to leave when she felt something pull on her. "AHHHHHHHHH", she disappeared into the darkness. The next morning she woke up in a strange environment. Cobwebs were everywhere, and there were all sorts of different things down there!!!! But one thing she did see was cabinets full of different varieties of food. But something was off about the food, it was food from her house "So that explains why food has gone missing" said Mia! She got up and walked around for a little bit, BANG! CLANG! "Oh no! Mia exclaimed. She accidentally knocked over some dishes. Then she heard a deep voice "Well, Well, Well what do we have here." She turned around and a dark shadow approached her "Please don't hurt me" She cried. But then the dark figure grabbed her by the neck and whispered "you shall comfort me till you fade away" and so that's what she did for the next 100 years. Like the dark figure said, she started to fade away, so she never returned home.
