

Belleville Public Library eNews

Adult Edition

May 2016

Genealogy Research

A how-to with
Linda Schiesser

Tues, May 10th at 6:30 PM

Computer Classes

Sat, May 7 at 10:00 AM—Facebook Basics

Wed, May 9 at 10:00 AM—Digital Photos

Thurs, May 12 at 2:00 PM—Facebook Basics

Please register at the Library (424-1812)

Self-Service Scanning Station

Scan your photos, slides, film, photo negatives, documents, & more!

Mon, May 16—Sat, May 21

Hiring for Success: Class for Employers

Register at the Library or call 424-1812

Tues, May 24
6:30-8:00 PM

Co-sponsored by the Belleville Chamber of Commerce

Butterfly and Pollinator Gardening

Learn how & why to attract butterflies!

Thur, May 19
6:30 PM

Mary Peltzer, UW Extension

Learn About Local: 10,000 Years of History Along the Sugar River

Tues
May 31
7:00 PM

Paul Reckner and Luther Leith,
Wisconsin Historical Society

Thurs
May 12
6:30 PM

Straw
Bale
Gardening
with Josh Dodge

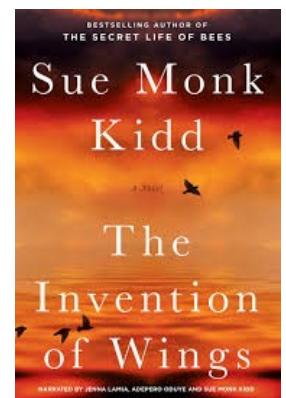

Book Discussion

The Invention of Wings

By Sue Monk Kidd

Thurs, May 26
7:00 PM

Thirty-five years in the lives of abolitionist Sarah Grimke and Handful, the slave she is given for her eleventh birthday.

Be sure to visit our website at www.bellevillibrary-wi.org. If you no longer wish to receive our eNews emails, reply to this email and we'll remove you from our list.