What's happening this month?

Special Adult Program: Thursday, July 31st @ 7pm

Have you ever wondered how books are reviewed? Or who decided which books receive review blurbs on the back cover? And how does an author go about having their book reviewed in the first place? Our expert will answer those questions and more!

Bobbi Dumas is a Madison-based freelance writer who specializes in writing about books, with a specialty in women's fiction and romance. She reviews, blogs and writes feature articles for Kirkus Reviews, a premier book review and media site, and is a contributing essayist and book reviewer for NPR. She also founded ReadAMonth.com, a month-long celebration of the romance genre which takes place in August.
