

Belleville Public Library eNews

Adult Edition

May 2019

We will be Closed Monday, May 27 for Memorial Day.

Saturday, May 4, 10 am-2 pm. Burreson's Cookout Fundraiser.

Growing Tomatoes

Thursday, May 2

6:30 pm

Luke Martz, a certified Master Gardener Volunteer from Dane County UW-Extension, speaking.

USED BOOK SALE

MAY 3 • 9 AM to 5 PM
MAY 4 • 9 AM to NOON
CONTINUES INTO NEXT WEEK

State Bike Trail Passes

Available now!
$5 Daily / $25 Annual

TECH WISE: Free technology training classes Smart Phone Basics

Thurs. May 9
2:00—3:00 PM

Please Register: 424-1812

Food for Fines—May 1-31

Adults: Clear $1 from your late fines for each non-perishable food item you bring in.

Kids under 18: Clear all your late fines with 2 food items or $2.

This offer is not valid on amounts owed for lost or damaged items.

Book Club

We Never Asked for Wings

By Vanessa Diffenbaugh

May 23rd 7:00 pm

Bestselling author of The Language of Flowers writes a novel about young love, hard choices, and hope against all odds.

Library Hotspot

CHECK OUT THE INTERNET

ASK A LIBRARIAN

Be sure to visit our website at www.bellevillibrary-wi.org.

To Unsubscribe, reply to this email and we'll remove you from our list.